

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Leder Law Group, PC has become Leder & Hale, PC

Baltimore, Maryland – August 18, 2015. The Leder Law Group, PC, the Baltimore-based litigation firm, is pleased to announce that it has changed its name to Leder & Hale, PC to reflect Thomas W. Hale’s prominence and leadership in the legal community and his leadership in the firm.

Hale is an insurance defense attorney focusing his practice on toxic torts and construction litigation. He has successfully tried cases in Circuit Court as well as arguing cases in the Court of Special Appeals and the Court of Appeals. Hale joined the practice in 2003 and became a principal in 2011; he heads Leder & Hale’s Toxic Tort and Construction Defect practices.

“Tom Hale has been an important contributor since we began working together 17 years ago. He helped found the Leder Law Group in 2003,” said Steven E. Leder, founder and partner of the Leder Law Group. Leder will continue his role as the firm’s managing partner.

Hale graduated from Stevenson University in 1995 and from the University of Baltimore School of Law in 2003. Hale is a member of the Maryland Defense Counsel, Inc. and the Defense Research Institute.

To learn more about Leder & Hale please visit www.lederhale.com

About Leder & Hale: Leder & Hale offers pragmatic solutions for insurers and defendants. The insurance defense practice is focused on insurance coverage litigation, toxic torts, recreational boating and construction defect litigation.

Contact:

Steve Leder
Leder & Hale, PC
443-279-7900
leder@lederhale.com

###